

CIVILIZATION

THE EXPANSION PROJECT

THE ATLANTIC OCEAN

TRADE CARD STACKS & CENSUS

The map illustrates the distribution of 12 major religions across the world. The religions are grouped into four quadrants, each with a central religion icon and a list of other religions. The quadrants are: The West (top-left), The East (top-right), The South (bottom-left), and The North (bottom-right). The central religions are: Christianity (The West), Buddhism (The East), Hinduism (The South), and Islam (The North). The other religions listed in each quadrant are: Judaism, Zoroastrianism, and Jainism (The West); Sikhism, Jainism, and Buddhism (The East); Jainism, Buddhism, and Hinduism (The South); and Zoroastrianism, Jainism, and Buddhism (The North).

ARCHAEOLOGICAL SUCCESSION TABLE

